

مستشفى الملك فيصل التخصصي ومركز الأبحاث
King Faisal Specialist Hospital & Research Centre
مؤسسة عامة Gen. Org.

SCCS-Extra-Corporeal Life support Chapter

9th Annual international Saudi Critical Care Society (SCCS) pre-Conference Course April 15 - 16, 2018

ADULT ECMO SUPPORT

Audience:

ICU Physicians
Cardiac & thoracic surgeons
ICU Nurses
Perfusionists
Respiratory Therapists

Venue:

King Faisal Specialist Hospital &
Research Centre, Riyadh
Nursing Development and Saudization
Old MCO Building

Course information:

- Discuss ECMO hospital program requirement, quality and structure
- Discuss the indications, contraindications, complications and nursing/medical management.
- Identify the ECMO circuit components and describe the basic component function.
- Basic and advanced troubleshooting (12 mid to high fidelity simulation scenario's)
- Role and responsibility during initiation, maintenance and weaning.
- Describe specific care related to Understand ARDS management & safe lung support management during ECMO
- Identify the physiology of coagulation during ECMO support and bleeding management among other medical conditions.
- Identify and manage cardiac support and management

Course Fees:

	Nurses, Perfusionist, Respiratory Therapists, Residents	Physicians
Early bird registration (before 1 April):	900 SR	1000 SR
Late/On-site registration(after 1 April):	1000 SR	1200 SR

Course Registration & Payment:

Al Rajhi Bank
SA1580000114608010097486
Name: Hospital Business Operations Account
Sub Account # 85512

Send your inquiries and/or receipt with your contact details to:
Hani Al Dalaty
ECMO/ VAD Coordinator (MCS Program)
Email: haldalaty@kfshrc.edu.sa

Trouble-shooting and Simulation sessions

CME hours will be awarded by SCFHS

Saudi Commission
for Health Specialties